The Azores are consistently ranked as one of the best, most sustainable, and most affordable island travel destinations in Europe. Located between Europe and North America, the Azores are the perfect island getaway for those looking for a unique and beautiful destination. On this 8-day itinerary we will explore the bigger island of Sao Miguel. It is guaranteed to leave you breathless and longing to come back.

Itinerary:

- September 11 - Evening flight from Boston
- September 12 - Flight arrives in the Azores—transfer to hotel—early check in and afternoon free. This evening enjoy a welcome dinner at the hotel.
- September 13 - Morning is free to explore or relax. Afternoon walking food tour. Evening free
- September 14—Morning excursion to Western Sao Miguel and Sete Cidades to see some of the most scenic lookout points on the island. Evening free
- September 15 - This morning we will cross the street to board our boat as our group sets out on a whale watch to spot bottlenose dolphins, pilot whales and other marine species. Afternoon and evening free to explore on your own.
- September 16 - Today we will explore Sao Miguel/ Furnas tour which includes a traditional cozido lunch. Lunch will be prepared by using the islands geothermal energy. Lunch included today.
- September 17 - Morning and afternoon are free. This evening we will enjoy a tasting of Azorean Chesses paired with Azorean and Portuguese wines.
- September 18 - A full free day to enjoy this beautiful city or do an optional excursion offered by the hotel concierge. This evening we will have a farewell dinner at a location to be determined.
- September 19 - Transfer to airport for flight home

This trip is jam-packed with countless experiences and adventures! Whether you're looking for breathtaking sights, immersive activities, or luxurious relaxation, every day offers something extraordinary for everyone.
